CATHOLIC HERITAGE

Students are provided a rare insight into their Catholic heritage through the school's devotion to the extraordinary form of the liturgy and beautiful sacred music of the Church. Students participate in the 1500-year-old Latin Mass, as encouraged by St. John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI. Bishop David Malloy has graciously allowed Adoration and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the Academy's chapel.

OLSHA IS COUNTER-CULTURAL

MISSION

To Jesus through Mary, we aim to form saints and leaders rooted in the immutable truths of the Catholic faith, appreciative of their Western heritage and religious traditions, in particular the extraordinary form of the Mass and the ancient sacred music of the Church, and inspired to bear witness to others of the Hope that is within them. We challenge each student to pursue perfection in holiness and excellence in academics as we strive to rebuild the culture through truth, faith and service.

ACADEMIC PHILOSOPHY & PROGRAM

Evidenced by our national awards from the Acton Institute and Hillsdale College, the Academy is dedicated to teaching a rigorous curriculum rooted in the classical liberal arts. Our commitment to the enduring principles of Western civilization, Judeo-Christian values and our American heritage and republic is unwavering.

The curriculum is sequential and developmental, providing a solid foundation in the lower school that prepares students for success in the upper school and college. Individual attention ensures that all students' needs are met, whether through acceleration or remediation.

See our website or ask for our 5-12 Curriculum Scope and Sequence for a snapshot of each grade and subject, and our High School Course Guide and Catalogue for detailed information on our high school program.

FACULTY

The heart of the Academy's program lies with our dedicated teachers, who employ proven, traditional teaching methods and best practices. All full-time teachers are practicing Catholics who view all aspects of education through the light of the Faith. Each signs an oath of loyalty to the Magisterium and a profession of faith to the Catholic Church. Our qualified professionals hold degrees and have years of proven experience.

LOWER SCHOOL

Confident readers, writers and speakers who have a gained valuable critical thinking skills, and have a solid background in math, science and history are prepared for the challenges of the upper school.

- Award-winning Institute for Excellence in Writing program with trained teachers
- Baltimore Catechism, Bible study
- Formal study of Latin
- Dictation and memory work
- IOWA test scores exceed national average

UPPER SCHOOL

Students in the junior high are prepared for the rigors of the high school through advanced courses, and they may earn high school credit in algebra and Latin.

Students have been accepted to Hillsdale College, University of Illinois, College of Engineering, Texas A & M, Ave Maria University, U.S. Navy Nuclear College, Rockford University and others.

WHY LATIN?

- Latin trains the mind to think in an orderly fashion and improves English skills.
- Latin students scored 159 points better than average on the 2001 SAT verbal section.
- Latin remains the official language of the Church, and is the birthright of every Catholic.

“Latin is not dead, it’s IMMORTAL.”
G.K. Chesterton
